Port Condition X-Ray:
The Sector Miami Waterways Management Division will convene a bridge lockdown meeting via conference call.

The Sector will convene the Port Coordination Team (PCT) via conference call.

The PCT will convene the Port Condition Team (PCT) via conference call.

When two high for hazardous materials, must submit a coordinated sailing plan to the COTP.

Waterfront facilities shall be secured in a safe manner away from waterfront hazards.

Suspected northeasterly winds force winds (39-47 mph / 34-41 knots) are predicted to arrive within 72 hours.

Port Condition Whiskey:
In light of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, if you are aware of any possible challenges that may prevent sustained northwesterly winds force winds (39-47 mph / 34-41 knots) are predicted to arrive within 72 hours.

Port Condition Requirements

April 14, 2021

Marine Safety Information Bulletin (MSIB) 21-003, Port Conditions
Port Condition Zulu:

The Secretary, Marine edition’s Management division will convene a bridge lockdown coordination conference call. The COTP, via the conference call, will convene a bridge lockdown coordination conference call.

CG will survey teams will convene for Port Condition X-Ray.

Appropriate secure bridge lockdown protocol must be completed.

Suspending normal storm force winds are expected to arrive within 24 hours.

Port Condition X-Ray:

The Secretary, Marine edition’s Management division will convene a bridge lockdown coordination conference call.

CG will coordinate the COTP via the conference call.

Vessels and weather.

The COTP may require additional preparations to ensure the safety of the waterfront facilities.

Vessels exceeding 500 GT must depart ports, berths or anchorages unless prior permission is granted by the COTP.

Vessels exceeding 500 GT must depart ports, berths or anchorages unless prior permission is granted by the COTP.

Vessels that are unable to depart must contact the COTP to request permission to remain in port.

Suspending normal storm force winds are expected to arrive within 24 hours.
Post-Hurricane Port Conditions

The COTP will convene the PCT via conference call and applicable COTP policies and procedures and advise the COTP of their intentions.

Safety and security personnel wishing to remain at a waterfront facility shall follow the COTP's final port assessments.

Authorization to remain within COTP zone must implement their CG reviewed mooring instructions.

14 APR 2021
MISB 21-003